

Remember collecting pebbles as a kid? These glass versions from Vancouver-based artist June Hunter are sure to remind you of more carefree days. Hunter transforms simple snapshots from her garden into stunning accents that bring the best of the outdoors in. Add life to your bathroom with the botanical tiles (see page 147) or create a sweet centerpiece with the marbles in a vase or glass dish.

June Hunter botanical pebbles, $4 each, or $60 for 20. junehunter.ca

Liven up a backsplash or bathroom with June Hunter's stunning and sensual tiles. She makes each one by hand using archival inks and Italian marble then coats them with a protective layer of acrylic. Hang them as simple art pieces, or work them into your bathroom or kitchen. They look just as awe-inspiring individually as they do in a series. Botanical tiles, from $25, June Hunter (by request).
